

Published in the United States of America by Shine-A-Light Press.

All rights reserved, including the right of reproduction in whole or in part in any form.

No part of this book may be reproduced in any form or by any electronic or mechanical means including information storage and retrieval systems-except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles or reviews-or transmitted in any form or by any means electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise without permission in writing from its publisher.

For permissions, please email Shine-A-Light Press at info@ShineALightCorp.com.
Shine-A-Light Press and related logo are registered trademarks of Shine-A-Light, Corp.

Copyright ©2019, Donna Arlynn Frisinger

2022 edition published by Shine-A-Light Press and printed in August, 2022

Illustrations by Kalpart

Cover design by Hannah Linder Designs

Book edit, layout and design by Andrea and Chris Elston

Educators and librarians, for a variety of teaching tools to use with this book, visit us at www.shinealightpress.com

Summary:

Assigned to a secret mission, Bink and Slinky find themselves abandoned in a remote shepherd's field. Will they arrive with God's other favored guests in time to welcome the Christ Child?

Library of Congress Control Number: 2022943226

ISBN: 978-1-953158-79-6

Printed in the U.S.A.

BINK & SLINKY'S

CHRISTMAS ADVENTURE

DONNA ARLYNN FRISINGER

ILLUSTRATED BY KALPART

Note From the Author

Although this book is a work of fiction, no doubt Mary and Joseph would have faced many hardships on their journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem. There were no trains, airplanes, buses, cars, or even paved roads to travel. No cell phones, 9-1-1, or policemen or women available when bad guys or wild animals threatened to attack. There definitely were no golden arches along the way to stop for food, drink, or potty breaks. However, from God's Word, we know He had His angels watching over His special family every step of the way.

Dedication

For the faithful all over the world who continue to "Tell the Story" to their children and their children's children.

Although Barry and I have never had a family of our own, we have made it our life's mission to share the Good News with all of God's children - just a couple of crazy Jesus Freaks from the '70's. To God be the glory.

A vibrant winter scene featuring snow-covered mountains in the background, a line of evergreen trees in the middle ground, and a cozy wooden cabin with a snow-laden roof. In the foreground, a red sleigh with two snails is gliding across the snow. The sky is a clear, bright blue with a few birds in flight.

Dear Bink and Slinky,

Go gather your children and snuggle them near
To tell them the story they all long to hear
Of shepherds and wise men on one midnight clear,
With angels and starlight... it's that time of year.

—God

P.S. Now, PLEASE!

What is this strange message
two groovy snails found?

One cold Christmas Eve at the Good News Campground?

At once, Bink and Slinky dug out their scrapbook,
Assembled their family to all take a look
At old family photos of days, long gone by—
Their road trip to Bethlehem, not knowing why.

That's Mary – she prayed
in her garden one day.
An angel named Gabriel dropped by to say,
“Don't be afraid, Mary. You're like no other.
You have been chosen to be Jesus' mother!”

The baby you'll have
is the Long-Promised-One;
Emmanuel! Savior! He's God's only Son.
Now hurry, find Joseph.
Yes, he needs to know.
He'll be the new daddy
to help Jesus grow.”

About that same time, Joseph had to run down
To Bethlehem City, King David's hometown.
He took his wife Mary, and she took the snails.
They traveled by donkey to trudge rugged trails.

The trip wasn't easy and proved to be long,
They all joined together to sing a new song:

"We sing! We swing!
We give God everything.
We're on our way to Bethlehemmm ...
To meet the newborn King."

